FSU Challenge activities can be strenuous and often offer exercise of a different nature than most participants are used to. Because of this, FSU does not want you to engage in activities that could be detrimental to your health or which would be opposed by your physician due to recent illness or injury. You should carry your own health, medical and/or hospitalization insurance because FSU does not have health, medical or hospitalization insurance to cover you or your participation in this activity. So that our facilitators can best program and take care of any direct concerns that you have, we are asking for you to share any conditions you may have that you feel would effect your participation in this program. The University's use of this information is for programming purposes for the Challenge Course only and shall comply with all applicable state and federal laws related to the privacy of health information of this type.
